

Academic Writing

You are expected to use good academic writing during your courses.

We have shared many useful links below for you to explore and develop your skills, however, remember that the best way to learn good academic writing is to read, read and read. You will be shared many good academic articles during this programme. Make sure that you read those as examples of good academic writing.

You are expected to use authentic references for your contributions and strictly avoid plagiarism. You can use either of the following:

- APA Referencing Style
<https://apastyle.apa.org/style-grammar-guidelines/references/examples>
- Vancouver Referencing Style- Referencing guide PDF available in the home page in the generic resources.

Useful Resources:

- The Open University Academic Writing Skills Pages
<http://www2.open.ac.uk/students/skillsforstudy/academic-writing-style.php>
- Academic writing - Objectivity (by UEfAP)
<http://www.uefap.com/writing/feature/objectiv.htm>
- The Manchester Academic Phrasebank
<http://www.phrasebank.manchester.ac.uk/>
- Discourse Markers (University of Warwick)
<https://www2.warwick.ac.uk/fac/soc/al/globalpad/openhouse/academicenglishskills/granmar/discourse/>